The first book of the Trilogy, Child of the Northern Spring, details Gwen's childhood—a time of freedom and adventuring far from the strictures of the more formal Romanized court. Here the feisty Celtic tomboy meets many of the characters who will be interwoven in the story of Camelot; the young, brash Gawain and his bombastic father, King Lot; Merlin, who's wisdom reeks of magic and superstition and, of course, Arthur's half-sister, Morgan Le Fey.
