When we are dead in our trespasses, there is no spiritual battle within us because there is no spiritual life. The Spirit of God brings us to life spiritually, yet we live in these bodies of flesh that still have a sinful nature. Thus, the battle rages in the lives of believers but the victory is assured because we are in Christ.

Sometimes God will fight the actual battle through you, other times He will simply tell you to hold your position and do absolutely nothing, and then He will move Himself to completely take out the attack coming against you. This is where God shows you how powerful and how awesome He really is when He moves into battle to personally protect you.

God Will Go Before You To Fight Your Battles

This is God's demand and this is God's gift. It is all of grace. That's why the only fight we fight is the fight of faith — the fight to rest so fully in the grace of God — to be so satisfied with the glory of God — that temptation to sin loses its power over us. The battle against lust is the battle against unbelief.

God did not want any one thinking that Gideon and his men won the battle. They were merely tools in God's hand. Standing in the hills over the camp of the 135,000 man army of the Midianites must have been frightening. However, God told Gideon to go down into the camp and listen to a couple men tell about a dream.
